

Humanitarian Aid Drive Benefits Puerto Rico & Grand Strand

Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce has organized a humanitarian aid drive to benefit families in the Myrtle Beach area and families of Fajardo, Puerto Rico, the town where the 2017 Puerto Rico Tip-Off Classic was originally set to be played. Because Fajardo was devastated by Hurricane Maria, this significant basketball event was relocated to the Grand Strand.

During the 2017 Puerto Rico Tip-Off, which took place Nov. 16, 17 and 19, MBACC accepted donations of canned goods and new, unwrapped toys, which will be split between families in the Fajardo region and families in need along the Grand Strand. The basketball tournament was just the kick-off for the aid-drive, however. Collections are continuing through the end of the year at the following locations:
