

Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce Ambassador Program

What makes a chamber ambassador?

Chamber ambassadors are outgoing, enthusiastic and dependable individuals who believe in and support the efforts of the chamber. Serving as the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce's public relations arm, ambassadors are a highly visible group of community-minded volunteers.

Ambassadors act as the official goodwill greeters between the chamber and our current and prospective members.

Their responsibilities include one-on-one visitations with chamber businesses, event networking and support of various chamber projects.

Why become a chamber ambassador?

Ambassadors gain business exposure by being the first to meet chamber members and put their company's name in the forefront. By volunteering at chamber events and attending the monthly ambassador meetings, your business is kept current on what is going on within the chamber and community.

As an added bonus, you and your company are eligible for monthly and yearly award recognition.

Ambassadors support the work of the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce by:

- Promoting the chamber in the community.
- Attending grand openings and ribbon-cutting events at member businesses.
- Making members feel comfortable at Business Before, During, After Hours, member orientation and other chamber functions.
- Attending monthly ambassador meetings.
- Visiting new and existing members throughout the year to encourage involvement in chamber programs and ensure the chamber is meeting their needs.
- Volunteering at various chamber events, such as Connections Marketplace, business expos and chamber sponsored festivals.

How do I become a chamber ambassador?

Ambassadors are asked to serve for at least one year and most choose to renew their ambassadorship.

If you are interested in becoming a chamber ambassador, please return the short form or contact Pat Creed, membership services manager, at (843) 916-7225 or Pat.Creed@VisitMyrtleBeach.com.

Ambassador Team

Being an ambassador gives me the opportunity to learn about new area businesses, meet new people, and stay in touch with what is happening in our community. — Jenafor Braley, SendOutCards

As an ambassador, I meet many people. It is one of the best opportunities within the chamber to promote your small business in a one-on-one setting. — Annette Litteken, Avon Independent Sales Representative

Being a chamber ambassador is a great way to support business and our community. The networking has helped in developing business relationships and friendships. — Carolyn Pittman, Long Bay Symphony
