About MBACC's DEI Council

The mission of the MBACC Diversity Equity & Inclusion Council is to promote growth and enhance community awareness about the value and advantages of creating and sustaining diverse and inclusive businesses and workplace environments. Diversity is defined as any respect in which people or groups may differ, including race, ethnicity, sex, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, national origin, age, ability status and veteran status. Our goals are to encourage entrepreneurship, support the growth and development of businesses owned by individuals from underrepresented and marginalized groups, cultivate diversity leadership by providing resources and services for our diverse business community and help the community recognize the importance of all consumers.

About Bennie J. Swans Jr.

Bennie J. Swans Jr. was a longtime community and civil rights activist and a former chair of the Horry County Democratic Party that passed away in September 2020. He was a veteran of the Vietnam War and a recipient of the Purple Heart for his service. Bennie was a driving force in the formation of the annual Martin Luther King Freedom Rally events and parade in Myrtle Beach each year. This was his way of uniting people across the county because of his belief in embracing diversity equity and inclusion. Bennie led with his heart, and you could often hear him say "Do Something" to make our community a better place.

The following criteria will be evaluated by the selection committee:

- The essay will be evaluated on the applicant's relationships, impact & background towards an underrepresented or marginalized group.
- The applicant's commitment, involvement, and desire to improve the community.
- Quality of application: leadership question responses, letters of recommendation, grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
